EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (SECTION I)

I. GENERAL

About Hyderabad:

Hyderabad is the capital and largest city of the Indian state of Andhra Pradesh. It occupies 650 square kilometres (250 sq mi) on the banks of the Musi River on the Deccan Plateau in southern India. The population of the city is 6.8 million and that of its metropolitan area is 7.75 million, making it India's fourth most populous city and sixth most populous urban agglomeration. Hyderabad was established in 1591 CE by Muhammad Quli Qutb Shah. The 1956 States Reorganisation Act created the modern state of Andhra Pradesh, with Hyderabad as its capital. Situated at the crossroads of North and South India, Hyderabad is noted for its unique culture. As the former capital of the largest and richest princely state, and with the patronage of the Nizams, Hyderabad established local traditions in art, literature, architecture and cuisine. The city is a tourist destination and has many places of interest, including Chowmahalla Palace, Charminar and Golkonda fort. Hyderabad has emerged as a global hub for the information technology, pharmaceutical and biotechnology industries.

LOCATION:

The Institute of NIAB will be established in Gopanpally Village Survey No. 37, Serilingampally, Hyderabad, (A P).

About NIAB:

National Institute of Animal Biotechnology (NIAB) is an autonomous institute under the Department of Biotechnology, Ministry of Science and Technology, Government of India being established in the campus of University of Hyderabad.

NIAB will focus on translational science and capacity building in the area of Animal Biotechnology. The vision is to enhance knowledge on livestock production and health and translate the knowledge for developing a globally competitive livestock industry through innovative science and technology development. A key feature of NIAB is that it will function as an incubator for startup companies and will also act as a national repository of biotech products and processes and promote bio-entrepreneurship in the country.

The research at NIAB will be focused on Animal Genetics and Genomics, Transgenic and Biotech Animal Products, Reproductive Biotechnology, Animal Health and Nutrition Enrichment.

NIAB aims at catering to the needs of human and animal healthcare sector in India with major emphasis on conducting high quality research and attracting world-class talent. Among other activities, the institute aims at research leading to the development of vaccines, diagnostics and improved therapeutic molecules for farm animals.

II. Sustainable Campus

- a) To realize this, and to provide a compelling model for future communities, the campus of NIAB is to be developed as a 'smart, intelligent eco-campus'. Additionally, the campus is intended to serve its larger campus community as a "Living Laboratory", its purpose being to demonstrate, embed, explore, invent, research and refine systems, devices and technology.
- b) As an eco-campus, sustainability and environmental sensitivity shall be emphasized at all levels. Its pattern shall be driven by stewarding natural resources and based on renewable energy. This eco-campus shall function 24x7 days of the year.
- c) The eco-campus is to be developed not only on the ground but underneath it as well, with systematically recharged subsurface water wells and tanks providing safe, sufficient and pure drinking water.
- d) A well-planned, environment-friendly wastewater system and other new biological technologies shall help in reducing dependence on public utilities, while providing nutrient-rich additives for soil regeneration.
- e) Wherever required and possible/practical, solar panels and other such renewable energy sources shall be used to cater to the basic needs of the community not only taking it "off the grid" but, perhaps, reversing the direction of resource flow.
- f) The Institute expects to be a "smart, intelligent eco-campus" connected through a scalable, rhizomatic, smart network built for superior performance and agility to absorb unforeseen changes in handling and operability.
- g) The final goal is to have a campus that is net zero waste, net zero energy and net zero water, thus reaching full range self-sufficiency at the end of the project period. These will be based on global best-practices and technologies, including respect for local constraints, resources and skills, and the requirements of the Government of India's procurement systems.

In order to realize this vision of a sustainable eco-campus development, NIAB intends to develop a Campus Master Plan after examining the carrying capacity of the land available and ecological analysis. The Campus Master Plan shall:

- i. Provide sustainability policies to promote sustainable design and operation of campus functions;
- ii. Maximize the potential of the site;
- iii. Minimize the energy and resource consumption;
- iv. Protect and conserve water;
- v. Use environmentally-friendly products and materials;

- vi. Enhance indoor environmental quality;
- vii. Optimize operational and maintenance practices;
- viii. Suggest a strategy wherein the performance of all of the above (and, perhaps, any others) can be continuously monitored and evaluated.

III. Design Elements

a) Main Wing: The Institute complex will be raised with Indian architectural touch possessing an ambience designed in accordance with standard guidelines. The complex will have about 2,50,000 Sft area with the following major component buildings:

- State of Art laboratories.
- Biosafety Laboratory (10,000 sft with bio confinement zones)
- Livestock farms for experimental animals separately for each species (cattle, buffalo, sheep, goat, poultry etc.,).
- Laboratory Animal House for mice, rats, rabbits, guinea pigs, hamsters etc., (30,000 sft)
- Walk in incubators, cold rooms.
- Guest House
- Conference Hall/ Convention Centre/ Auditorium
- Administration Complex
- Library
- Workshop
- Business Incubation unit (10 units initially)

b) Resident quarters for faculty, staff, security etc.,

Any no. of more building(s) can be added or deleted in the above list

c). Utilities & Services

The Utilities & services shall include & not limited to:-

1. HVAC Works.
2. Electrical Works.
3. Plumbing, Water & Sewage Treatment Plant.
4. Fire detection & fire fighting work.

5. Security System.
6. Audio Visual System.
7. Solar water heating system & solar energy utilization.
8. Computer system including networking.

10. IBMS (Integrated building & management system.)
11. Rain Water Harvesting.
12. Landscape Work.
13. Swimming pools, Water bodies etc.
14. UPS, back-up power source & intelligent lighting System.

IV. Philosophy of Design

- i. The purpose of the Design is to provide a stimulating environment for research having State of the Art laboratories, Bio safety laboratories, live stock farms for Experimental animals, Laboratory Animal House for different species etc. The Design should reflect this concern and respond to it in a fitting manner.
- ii. The Design should keep in mind the climate, ecology, topography, soil and vegetation at the site.
- iii. The campus layout and detail should promote pedestrian friendly movement and provide for a lifestyle that is suitable to campus residents and promote maximum interaction between the community members living on campus, especially interaction between the students and the faculty.
- iv. The infrastructure, facilities and buildings should be functional and also have a built- in flexibility to accommodate the foreseeable future technical advances.
- v. The overall design - the layout, planning of the campus and the individual buildings should be done to draw a balance between the initial costs as well the cost of maintenance and upkeep during its useful life span. The building materials proposed as well the height and the orientation of the buildings should reflect this. The local/regional and vernacular techniques, material, and processes for sustainable design have to be a part of the design vocabulary.

All proposed designs have to be in accordance with the prevailing building regulations and bye laws.

2. BRIEF SCOPE OF THE ARCHITECT

NIAB Hyderabad intends to develop its campus along with necessary infrastructure facilities. The broad scope of work includes:

- a. Preparation of Comprehensive Master Planning, layout, infrastructure, urban and landscape design for developing Campus of over 100 Acres of land at an
